

WILLUNGA BOWLING CLUB NEWS

Welcome

Welcome to issue no.11 or February, already January has been & gone and the year & season is moving along.

Extreme Weather

Sadly we have already lost some playing days due to hot weather,(including Presidents day on the 6th Jan which didn't help our finances) but with all of February to come we could lose some more. It's all about the duty of care by the association & the clubs to all players. Far better to lose some playing time than some players to heat stroke or worse.

OBE

Recently Ian Walker got an OBE (over bloody eighty) which I am sorry I missed when it occurred. Still, better late than never. Well done mate, hope you get another 80.

Happy Birthday

Mel Wood, Clive Rowley, Trevor Probert, Chas Pollard, Dennis Ploenges, Sam Meade, Murray Mc Coy, Jason Mc Cauley, Le-Anne Jolly, John & Irene Hodge (expensive month this one John) Phil Clifford and life member Mick Nunn turns 30.

Patroness & life member Jean Eatts is 21 on the 28th.

New Member

A belated welcome to Ted Warner who has recently joined us. He is another bloke who has been around the place so much I thought he was a member? Glad to have you on board mate.

Oops

A new business was opening in a new area and a group of friends sent some flowers.

When the owner received them the card said in bold letters 'REST IN PEACE'

The owner, understandably upset rang the florist and complained. To which the florist replied "look on the bright side sir somewhere there is a funeral with a floral wreath saying we hope you enjoy your new location".

And I See

They are now putting Viagra into tea bags.

It won't improve your sexual performance, but it will stop your biscuit from going soft.

A Long Time Supporter Of Ours

And hopefully for a long time still to come.

Sorry to Hear

That Mark Ritchie is not enjoying the best of health at the moment, we hope you get better soon mate and get back to the club.

Also

I have been told that Mel & Rodger Wood are leaving us. I understand that Rodgers health has taken a turn for the worse and they have decided to shift closer to their daughter. Good luck to you both.

Dieters Beware

What do we learn from cow, buffaloes & elephants?

It's impossible to reduce weight by eating green grass and salads and walking

Thursday Evening Training Sessions

Clive Rowley has started these training sessions again on Thursday evenings from 6pm to 7.30pm. This is to help you develop your individual skills and your team skills to enable you to become better players and teams.

The aim of this of course is winning as many of the remaining games as possible to make the finals or get out of relegation zones. Please make the effort!

Me Too

BREAKING NEWS: Two more have now come forward.

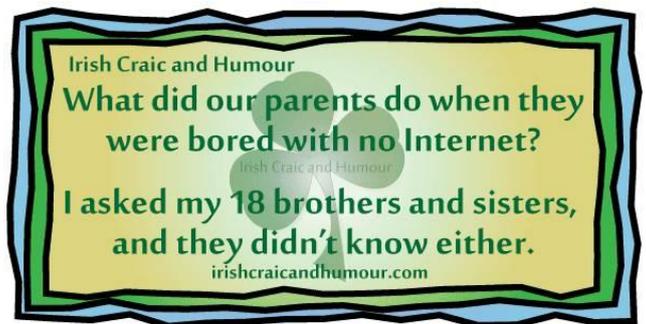

Sooty and Sweep say the abuse went on for years. They claim they had fingers shoved up their backsides and the BBC knew all along.

Great To See

Peter Webster back playing some pennant bowls again. Pete's still having treatment, but is refusing it let stop him from enjoying himself. Good on you mate and good luck.

Humour From Anita

Humour From Our Patroness

David Beckham, Donald Trump the Pope & a schoolboy were on a plane that was going to crash. There were only three parachutes! David Beckham said I'm a world famous soccer player & rich, so he took a chute & jumped. Donald Trump said I am President of the United States, leader of the free world, very rich and the smartest man in the world! So he jumped. The Pope said I'm old & have lived my life, so you take the parachute! But sir, there are two chutes? How come? Said the Pope.

Well said the boy the smartest man in the world put my schoolbag on his back and jumped.

Thanks Jean
